As to the fire on Eleventa street, on the first of devoley, the committee "do not think the chief engineer has much right to speak of the conduct or services of the men, as the fire was nearly out when he reached the ground, he having gone into the First ward as far as the Circle te look for it." A SUTLER ARRESTED. Terrence Duffy, sutler A SUTLER ARRESTED.—Terrence Duffy, autier to the Twenty-eighth Massachusette Volunteers, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Sergeant Cronie, charged with attempting to pass a 32 Tressury note raised to a $50. It appears that Duffy went into the house of Measrs. E. H. & H. I. Gregory, on the ayeaue, near leventh street, and purchased 50 worth of goods, and tendered a $10 in payment. The seleman examined the note, and informed Duffy of its true character. The latter left the store with the remark that he would go out and get other money, thus leaving Mr. Gregory to infer that he had no other money with him. He was arrested, however, by Bergeant Cronie, before he had been anywhere, or spoken to any one, and when searched, about $500 was found on his person, from a nickell cent to a $10 note. Duffy was held to ball for a further hearing by Juetice Johnson.

Bunot.ant.—The residence of Susan Tenney, (colored,) 31st M street, between Fifteenth and sixteenth, was entered on Sunday night last, and about $150 in money stellers. The money was in the pockets of an old pair of pantaloons, and was undermath the bed where the children were sleeping. The burglar site went into an adjoining room where a young man slept, and took from the pockets of his pantaloons shout five dollars. In his pockets was a three cent piece, which was found on a table near the bed. A razor was lying on the table, and the burgler left that open, as a gentle hint, it is supposed, that he should be thankful that his throat was not cut.

Horse Killed.— Yesterday, a stoppage having occurred in the water pipes of the Kirkwood House, a hole was duy in the street, in front, to the main, and a force pump applied to the pipe branching into the hole irwesled the cause of the Lyouble, in the shape of a buge cel. The head of the fish protruded from the pipe, and a workman was obliged (after a good cel of trouble) to pull it out with his testh. Atdunk the plumber was about inabling the job of oldering the pipe, when he went into the house to procure a light. Just at this moment a cavairy man came dashing along, and his horse was precipitated into the exavation and killed. As a morning contemporary would say, "the police, as usual, were not in the hole at the time of the sad occurrence."
